O'CONNOR'S BAD RIDE ON BOX ALLOWED AN OUTSIDER TO WIN

BY FRANCIS TREVELYAN.

CLOSE finishes among horses of no class were the feature of yesterday's racing at Morris Park. The last race, which was a handicap over the Withers mile, promised the best things of the day, but the scratching of Admiration and three others spoiled it.

The event in question was further damaged by a poor ride on the part of Winnie O'Connor. O'Connor had ridden two winners, Brigadier and a big mare, but with Scotch Plaid he had drawn the finish exceedingly fine.

On Box O'Connor drew the finish so fine that he was beaten by the outsider Carnero, when he had considerably the better horse under him.

O'Connor had had plenty of trouble of his own this season. The sympathy of the public has been with him, for it has been believed that the lad, whatever his faults, was acting in perfect faith with the feeling crowd.

There is no bad riding to-day to whom such an error as that on Box would be readily forgiven. Yet O'Connor must remember that if he cannot shake off such tendency to carelessness he can never fill a place in the front rank of jockeys.

Odona celebrated an occasion yesterday, though this featherweight jockey was handicapped by his accident with John Fitz at Brighton Beach, and kept out of the saddle for several weeks, his win on Winnie O'Connor was his hundredth.

Not in the open race was his hundredth. Later in the day he steered the outsider Leardo to victory and made his score 101.

The going had not dried out. It was better than on Monday, but was still cuppy and holding, though the Eclipse course, and dried out better than the main and Withers courses.

Brigadier an Easy Winner.

The Rancho del Paso Stakes, for two-year-olds, was the first of the two minor stakes on the card. Brigadier, as a beaten maiden, had a tremendous allowance, and with his riding allowance he took in at 97 pounds, a correction to that effect being made on the bulletin board.

This caused him to be a hot favorite. From 8 to 5 at the opening he was backed to 6 to 5 at the close. Puppi had to shoulder 122 pounds, and was backed to 10 to 1.

Brigadier's price went from three to 6 to 2 to 1. He was backed to 10 to 1 at the close. Puppi had to shoulder 122 pounds, and was backed to 10 to 1.

It was a very easy race for the favorite, who had no real opposition. He came down the track close to the inside rail, which seems generally to spell a horse's chances, but he was not able to win.

Puppi was slow to get going, though the start was good, and he could never catch the leader, and beat Montague for second money only by a neck.

Warrior was close up, fourth. Bullman and Tarr were each fined $25 for misbehavior at the post in this race.

At very poor lot came out for the Fairview, which is a selling event at a mile and a sixteenth. Tumor and Hurricane were the favorites, but Leardo went to the front on the backstretch and was never again headed. Tumor went after him in the stretch, but Leardo was a length, while Tumor only defeated Holland a head for the place.

O'Connor Loves on Box.

The mile handicap, already alluded to, had Box for a favorite, backed from three to 8 to 5. St. Cloud looked quite big, and his price went from two to 13 to 5.

Box and St. Cloud made the pace, but the latter was done for at the head of the stretch. Then Deaneur went in pursuit and made a strong bid, but Box stood him off and seemed to have the race in hand until Deaneur, who had trailed the others on Carnero in the early part, came fast. If O'Connor had gone on after killing him, Deaneur could have won, but as it was he was overconfident and Carnero beat Box a head on the post.

Wally Not From a Big Field of had maidens in the first race. Eugene gave him a hot race and was only beaten a head. Wilson, who gave the latter a claim on a bid, but was not allowed, St. Simonian, who was plunked on, was the best horse in the race, but Bullman fell too far out of it in the early part.

Apprentices who had never ridden a winner except in a selling race were demanded by the conditions of the race. Though little Johnny Daly could not help her, Belle of Memphis won by a head from the favorite, Souther, who had beaten up.

The mile selling race saw Scotch Plaid and Our Nellie square favorites. Rags Pers gave the former a hard tussle, but O'Connor outride Dupee at the finish and won by a head. Myra was a very close third.

Clawson weighed out for Admiration in the last race before the fly was scratched. It is stated that the lad will be put into good standing by his stable for the rest of the year. The discipline meted out to him implied no charge of fraud.
